

V dnešním pracovním listě si přečtete něco o řece Temži a uděláte ke článku cvičení A, B, C. Ve cvičení D jsou obrázky míst a věcí typických pro Londým. Zkuste obrázky přiřadit k názvům a vypracovat s tím související cvičení E, ve němž jsou popsány některé věci ze cvičení D. Nezapomeňte na cvičení, která jsme si zadávali na online hodině.

THE RIVER THAMES

The River Thames starts in the Cotswold hills in England and flows eastwards for 338 km. It flows through London, the capital city, and finally pours into the North Sea. At the beginning the water is fresh, but the last part of the Thames is sea water.

The Thames in London is very famous. You can travel by boat along the river and see the famous London sights, like Tower Bridge, Big Ben and the London Eye.

Lots of people have holidays near the Thames or on the Thames. The 'young' Thames flows through very beautiful places and you can go fishing, swimming or boating.

There are pictures and stories of people skating on the Thames in London in the winter - but these days the Thames never freezes.
